

LIFE FORCE COMMUNICATION SPECIALIST III JOB SUMMARY AND QUALIFICATIONS

Job Summary:

The Communications Specialist III employed by Erlanger Health System is responsible for operating all base radios, information systems, and related equipment associated with the LIFE FORCE Communications Center and Chattanooga MedComm.

Education:

Required:

Graduate of an accredited EMT training program.

Preferred:

Emergency Medical Dispatch (EMD) certification is preferred.

Experience:

Required:

A minimum of two years field experience or two years emergency communications experience. Experience in EMS and Dispatch is required. Experience must reflect general knowledge in pre-hospital principles and practice skills; knowledge of current trends and new developments; knowledge of principles and practices of emergency communications and pre-hospital medicine, applicable to those areas requiring special education.

Preferred:

Computer proficiency in word processing, spreadsheets & database management is preferred.

Position Requirement(s): License/Certification/Registration

Required:

Must hold a current license to practice as an EMT in the State of Tennessee. BLS certification.

Preferred:

Nationally Registered EMT (NREMT) preferred. NAACS and ITLS/PHTLS certification is preferred.